Misc	Accessibility	User Experience	Features	Privacy / Trust & Safety
Available offline	Should be cost effective for students	Easy to use and intuitive - quick	autofill basic info like resume, name, email, phone and address	application materials may contain sensitive information needs to be robust against many different job application forms/vendors	Integrate with popular sites such as LinkedIn	visually clear and appealing - looks nice and is not cluttered	stores responses to common form-based questions such as work history	high stakes if solution bugs/glitches - could put jobs on the line people can opt to share their applications as examples/make them public	Should be mobile friendly to include all users	suggestions/examples for multiple fields	it would also be helpful if the tool tracked status of your application and correspondence with recruiters	Optional short intro/document about recommended safety guidelines to follow when making an application saves time without sacrificing application quality		lightweight - the program works and loads quickly and efficiently	Saves multiple custom applications	Secure encryption for personal data
			Allows for multiple uploading formats (Word, PDF, etc)	